calling on friends in Middletown on Two More Divorces Sought-Lurie Main Wants $8,000 from Estate of Her Erother Ira D. Main-Husbands and Wives Legally Separated at Short Calendar Session.

Five new cases have been filed with the clerk of the superior court, four for the first Tuesday in February and one for March. Two of the suits are for divorce, two are foreclosures and one is a suit for $3,000 damages involving the Main family of North Stonington and against the estate of Ira D. Main.

Two Want Divorce.

George E. Nichols of Norwich sues for a divorce from Hannah N. Nichols of West Cheshire, claiming that she wilfully deserted him December 24, 1986, and between January 1, 1990, and the day of desertion she committed adultery with several parties. They were married August 2, 1880, at Cheshire, the defendant's malden name being Hannah N. Gaffney.

Alice A. Patterson of Preston is suing for a divorce from Alfred W. Patterson of parts unknown. She claims he deserted her September 20, 1902. Her maiden name was Alice A. Street, and they were married June 8, 1897. She asks for the custody of three minor children.

death, in June, 1909, she rendered services to Ira D. Main at his request and upon his promise that he would pay her for the same by giving and transferring to her at the time of his death the farm in Ledyard known as the Old Homestead. The work consisted of keeping his house, doing housework, washing, mending, and keeping his men on the place. The services were worth $260 a year. The defendants have given notice that they disallowed her claims. This is returned for the first Tuesday in March.

Samuel G. Norman of Griswold sues Joseph P. Williams of Ledyard for $1,000 damages to recover on a mortage of $550.

A suit for the foreclosure of a mortage has been brought against Anton Grawsgrowski et al. for the recovery of $2,500, by the Savings Bank of New London.

Women's Hair

Can Easily Be Made Radiant and Luxuriant.

Any woman can have fascinating and heavy hair by using Parisian Sage, the most efficient hair grower and dandruff cure.

Parisian Sage is the favorite hair dressing of refined people, and since its introduction into America it has met with wonderful success.

If you want beautiful, lustrous hair that will be the envy of your friends, go to The Lee & Osgood Co. and get a bottle of Parisian Sage today and use it for two weeks.

Then if you are not satisfied that Parisian Sage is the most delightful and refreshing hair invigorator you have ever used, take it back and get your money. There was an evening of cards and dancing at the Norwich club house on wednesday evening, arranged by a number of the club members.

That's a fair offer, of course. And here is another one.
